

PART TIME JOB VACANCY AT HUNDON COMMUNITY POST OFFICE

We are looking for someone to work as a Relief Sub-Post Master/Mistress one/ two mornings a week, plus cover vacant slots as required. The job is based in Hundon Village Post Office which is open from 9.00am to 1.00pm Monday to Saturdays.

Applicants should be computer literate, be good with figures, have a friendly business-like approach when working with customers, recognise the need for the 'in confidence' nature of the job and be happy to work as part of a small team. Full training of the Post Office operating systems and the day to day transactions required will be given. The job is a paid position.

If you are interested, please speak to Megan Brett (the Sub Post Mistress) or leave your contact details with an on-duty shop volunteer. The contact telephone number for the shop is – 01440 786223.

HUNDON VILLAGE SHOP ASSOCIATION

As outlined in the last edition of The Hundon Herald, because of the changing population of the village, the Shop Association decided to amend the regulations concerning membership. It was agreed that, in future, all volunteers will automatically be members of the Association, unless they decide otherwise. Any resident of Hundon village is also invited to request membership. There is no fee or requirement to take part in any shop activity – simply let the Shop know you wish to be a member. Membership gives the right to attend and vote at the AGM. The more members we have the healthier the future of the shop will be.

When the shop was originally founded many villagers became nominal shareholders and thus members. This original list is very outdated. If you were an original member though and still wish to remain a member, please confirm this with us in the shop and make sure we have an up to date address.

In order that we comply with the requirements of the necessary authorities and to allow us to keep in touch with you, the Association has compiled and holds a list of contact details for members – names, addresses and contact telephone numbers where appropriate. Because we hold such information we also make sure we are compliant with current legislation relating to General Data Protection Regulations. Our policy document is available for inspection if you so wish -just ask the committee members or the shop manager to see it. The data itself is also available for you to check to ensure that your data is up to date and accurate.

Should any volunteer NOT wish to be a member of the Association please let us know and we will ensure your name, address and contact telephone number is deleted from the Association membership list.

HUNDON VILLAGE SHOP NEWS

So, that's it then. Another year gone and a new one started. The festivities all seem a while ago now. Groggy heads from too much sour mash and what's to look forward to? Resolutions and the weather turning colder! Of course, January is famous for being a cold month. St Hilary's Day on the 13th is traditionally the coldest but Keats knew a thing or two as well when he penned "St Agnes Eve, ah, bitter chill it was". What with all those young girls going to bed with pins stuck in cushions and sleeves, not looking in mirrors until the appointed time on the 20th...all to spot a husband. Not worth the effort!

January is also the tricky month. Named after the two faced god, Janus - he looks forward and backwards at the same time...make your mind up. As if life isn't difficult enough! Still, kind and well-meaning neighbours have already first footed to bring a lump of coal, a bit of bread, not much money and a bit of greenery. Why? Supposedly the coal to wish me warm, the bread to hope I am well-fed, money for future wealth (that sixpence won't cut it!) and greenery for good luck...as if I haven't had enough leaves to sweep up! The coal can be bought in the shop and there is always a choice of fresh bread. The greenery is on display and plants ready for purchase outside. As for the money, you can withdraw cash with your card from the Post Office.

On top of it all some city slicker came up with the idea of a dry January – no alcohol for a whole month. O.K. The shop does sell excellent soft drinks and tasty cordials to make such a feat more palatable...but a whole month!

Start the New Year on a positive note though, the lights in the village have looked beautiful, even if coming down on twelfth night...and grandma did not get run over by a reindeer...she always looks like that!

VILLAGE SHOP –

APPEAL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Our village shop is a community shop which relies almost entirely on volunteers to keep it open.

We are still in need of new volunteers who can make a commitment to helping out in the shop for a couple of hours a week, on a regular basis, on either Monday afternoons, Wednesday afternoons, Friday mornings or Saturday mornings (cover can be arranged when required).

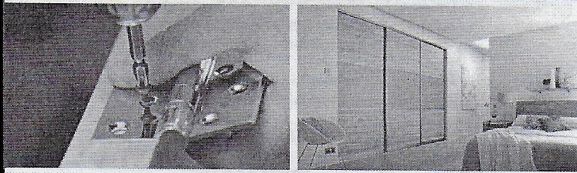

We also require helpers who are willing to give occasional cover to regular volunteers as and when needed.

If you can spare some time to help keep the shop running (or know somebody who might) then please speak to Karen on 786223, or call into the shop for more information.

Thank you., Graham Gosling

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations go to the students of The Ballet Shoe Workshop in Hundon who put on three amazing shows at the Arts Centre in Haverhill on the 1st and 2nd December. The story was about Grandpa William being set the task by Grandma Nancy of putting all the children to bed, not happy to hear the usual fairy stories, the children beg Grandpa William to tell the story about how he and Grandma Nancy met.

100 children from as young as 3 danced their way through Grandpa William's story covering ballet, freestyle and hip hop.

All the children worked exceptionally hard from September to put on these performances, their enthusiasm and excitement could be seen from beginning to end of every show.

UPDATE ON THE PROPOSED REFURBISHMENT OF THE WAR MEMORIAL

Earlier this year a campaign was launched to refurbish the War Memorial and at the same time add the names of four who, while listed on the Roll of Honour in the church, were missing from the memorial, which as you know honours those brave men from Hundon who were killed in the First and Second World Wars.

The memorial was originally erected shortly after the end of World War One and would have been largely funded by public subscription. Originally it was positioned at the lower end of North Street where it remained for over 50 years until it was moved to its current position in the churchyard.

Quotations for the work were obtained and local funeral directors and stonemasons, Paintins who provided a comprehensive schedule of work and submitted the lowest quote. Unlike some others they would remove the memorial to their workshop in Linton where the detailed work could be carried out under ideal conditions. The Revd Canon Stuart Mitchell and the church were content with this removal plan. In order to provide an accurate figure Paintins had surveyed the memorial and commented that the state of the memorial which is covered in "grime and lichen" was largely due to its location where it is permanently shaded by the trees. As it would be removed to be refurbished etc. it occurred to us that perhaps it would make sense to return it to where, as when it was originally erected, it would be in a more prominent position.

We attended the Parish Council meeting in July together with the Revd Canon Stuart Mitchell who had previously been consulted regarding the refurbishment and also with regards to the proposal to re-site it. Both the Parish Council and Borough and County Councillor Mary Evans support this since, apart from the problems highlighted by Paintins, surely in this Centenary Year for those honoured on the Memorial to be brought out of the shadows to where light perpetual can shine upon them should be everyone's wish. However, we were advised by the Revd Canon Mitchell that before work could commence it would be necessary to apply to the Diocese for a "faculty" whereby a formal application detailing the work is submitted (together with a fee). The application was made in time for it to be heard at the monthly meeting of the "DAC" on September 7th and although approval was given in principle it was then necessary for it to be displayed for a 28 day Public Consultation after which it then goes to the Chancellor for final approval and then to the Registrar. This process took a total of nearly 7 weeks- to almost the end of October - and unfortunately Paintins, who had been on "standby" decided that they could not guarantee completion for Remembrance Sunday which as you will appreciate has been the aim of the campaign in this Centenary Year.

For reasons best known to themselves the Diocese, while agreeing that the much-needed refurbishment be carried out have stated categorically that the memorial must be returned to its current position. We are puzzled by the DAC's unwillingness to accept that there has been a lot of support in the village for this proposal; however, it wouldn't be the first time that the Church has not respected the wishes of the people of Hundon. Since it seems that for whatever reason they appear to have laid claim to this important, if modest monument, maybe they should pay to have it restored to its former glory and let it be sited in a more prominent position in our village.

FROM THE REVD CANON STUART MITCHELL AT THE VICARAGE IN CLARE

Rural Dean of the Deanery of Clare

January 2019. Happy New Year?

Greetings to all across the Deanery at the beginning of this New Year. Back at the beginning of December, in Clare, the 40th anniversary of the Community Carols was peppered with love and joy and hope. Young and old, light hearted and deeply serious, musical offerings that were across the range of new and thought provoking (thank you Priory) not so old given a youthful twist (thanks SVCS), leaders doing what leaders should – taking the lead (thank you Guiders). For a moment – well ninety minutes, all that political stuff was left to the speculative reporters desperate to fill endless hours of news coverage. I know we need to know about such things and yet there is so much opportunity for individual opinion, none of which can do a thing about anything except express an opinion.

Right now I don't know where we shall all be when this short article (full of opinion I note) reaches your respective publication. I hope it is a place of security, a place where you feel safe, as we move towards the deadline of the end of March when our country will no longer have a place in an organisation of which we have been a part.

The changes since we joined the EU have been gradual, imperceptible, worth a grumble occasionally, often having a humorous element (remember the sausage and banana stories) and moving about for work or holiday was relatively easy until the 29th March. Change at that point will no longer be a gradual thing, we will do well to keep up with new stuff coming from Parliament. We the people spoke – or at least cast a vote and whilst we can debate the numbers, the democratic constitution of this our beloved country has determined that we should no longer be a part of the EU. Of course by the time this reaches you it may all be different, in so many ways. I can only offer a guess or speculate as do the political commentators as to the outcome. But I can pray for understanding by all people of the United Kingdom so that whatever the politicians decide, it's you and me who have to live with those decisions and we shall have to make it work. Life will most certainly carry on and we will need to be mindful of the necessities of others in true Christian spirit.

*With every blessing for a Happy New Year
Stuart*

ALL SAINTS CHURCH - CAROL SERVICE

Our annual Carol Service took place on 16th December led by Rev. Cannon Stuart Mitchell. It was heartening to see so many people there joining in the celebration of the birth of Jesus.

The Church was looking beautiful with all the gloriously decorated Christmas Trees, all seventeen of them, put in place by different groups, clubs and associations in the Village, each tree reflecting their own particular interest. It was lovely to see the Village community getting together behind the idea and our thanks go to all those who put in so much time and effort.

All the old traditional carols were sung with great enthusiasm and we were able to sit back and recover our breath whilst listening to the Hundon Harmony Singers' sensitive rendering of A La Puerta Del Cielo and later, Winter Canon by Tallis, all under the watchful eye and expert direction of Elaine McGregor.

After the service everyone got stuck into the mulled wine and mince pies whilst Ann McGregor conducted the raffle in aid of the organ repair fund and which raised an excellent £204, so again, many thanks to everyone who participated.
