We really would love to welcome a horse and donkey or two! They give us so much pleasure, and support in times of need, I'm sure the least we can do is to thank them!

Allotment Field update

Spring is very much in the air and there is a lot of activity on the allotment field. The orchard is blossoming – it should look fabulous as the trees mature – and we are getting more flowers in the wildflower meadow.

Plant Sale

Thanks to everyone who supported our plant sale, either by donating or buying plants. We were delighted to raise £500, which will be shared by HATA and Hundon Hedgehog Rescue.

Water-courses

A group of us, including members of the Parish Council, Rogeron Trust and HATA, had a very interesting meeting with experts from the Environment Agency and the Essex and Suffolk Rivers Trust. A walk around looked primarily at the water-courses around the allotment field, but included reviewing other green spaces in the centre of the village.

We were given advice about managing the water-courses, including the main ditch and the Chilton Brook, in a wildlife-friendly manner, and some thoughts on flooding mitigation. Some potential solutions to existing erosion issues were suggested and will be reviewed by the Rogeron Trust.

Andy and James gave us some useful contacts and have offered to try to be available in the future as we make progress with our Nature Recovery work.

Nature in Your Garden Survey

Thanks to everyone who has completed and returned their surveys. If you haven't, we would love to hear from you as well.

When we've got everything analysed, we will give you some feedback. We will also be getting in touch with the people who have asked for specific advice.

HUNDON VILLAGE HALL - BOOKING MANAGER ROLE

The Hundon Village Hall is seeking a replacement Booking Manager.

The Trustees would like to place on record their thanks to Graham Gosling for his hard work over the last 8 years as he will be handing over the reins at the AGM in June.

The role is primarily voluntary although a small allowance of approximately £10 per week is paid to the Booking Manager. The commitment is generally to field telephone and email enquiries from potential hirers about the facilities and dates available – which are also available on the website. It also involves taking details of hirers, collaborating with the caretaker, treasurer and other management team members as needed, and keeping the calendar on the website up to date. There will also be some occasions when potential hirers need to be met on site to be shown around and briefed on the hall facilities.

As part of the management team the role involves coming along to our six weekly meetings to update on past events and contribute to plans for future hires and activities.

If you have some free hours each week and would like to be involved in the running of our great village facility please ring me to discuss the role in more detail.

The Hundon Relief in Need Charity is a branch of the Estate Charity of Thomas Rogeron. It provides monetary help in cases of hardship and need to any resident of the Parish of Hundon.

Hundon WI meeting Thursday 11th May

Some might say this month's meeting was a little ambitious, an AGM, a speaker, and a demonstration, but it all worked out rather well!

Fiona Gould from HATA, provided us with an insight into Hundon's Nature Recovery Plan, and what a plan it is. A wildflower meadow, bug hotels, ponds, tree planting and much more. Mapping and surveying of other potential wildlife areas within the village is already underway. If you haven't already been down to the allotments to see what is taking shape, then please take the time to visit.

A brief AGM followed, which resulted in Jan McLardy being re-elected as President for the coming year. Congratulations Jan.

Moving swiftly on, tea, cake, and time to chat was next on the agenda. A very important part of any WI meeting of course!

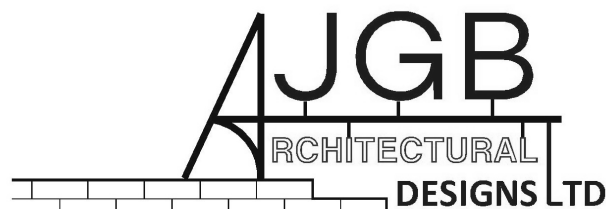

Last, but certainly not least, we welcomed Margaret Langridge, who came to share her love of flower arranging with us. Whilst providing tips on choosing greenery & flowers, how to vary shapes, heights & so much more, Margaret produced 3 wonderful floral arrangements, which were later raffled. The recipients were overjoyed with their prizes. I left empty handed and wishing that I had a green finger or two!

Margaret creates floral displays for the church, and more volunteers are needed to help. Whether you are green fingered or not, you are welcome to join

Margaret and the other ladies, who will be on hand to guide you.

Next month we are venturing out to Ashdon Museum. Thursday 8th June, afternoon visit. Contact Jan McLardy for more details. 01440 786369 .

HUNDON VILLAGE SHOP AND POST OFFICE

A big thank you to everyone who showed such kindness and appreciation to Karen in the days leading up to her retirement as our shop manager. Karen leaves us a great legacy at the shop and the new management team are now in place, raring to go and ready to build on that legacy.

All are invited, customers frequent or occasional, volunteers and former volunteers. Please do drop in to join us.

HUNDON WINE CLUB

Our April meeting was presented by a regular contributor to the wine club, Charles Eaton from Nethergate Wines (now called Charles Eaton Wines) in Depden. Starting with two rosés from France, one of which was sparkling, we then had another French white and two from the Antipodes including a Picpoul and an unusual Pinot Gris that is more commonly found in Italy as Pinot Grigio.

We followed that with reds from Chile, France, Argentina and Italy. All the wines were reasonably priced and quite different offering a good selection of styles and a great opportunity for us to taste wines from across the globe.

Our next few meetings will be...

29 June:- We will be visiting at Broxted Solar Park where we have our usual al fresco, hopefully, beautiful evening tasting and snacks provided very kindly by Charles Ryder.

27 July:- Jake from the relatively new wine shop Vino Gusto in Bury St Edmunds. I'm hoping he will be bringing along a few samples of his excellent Greek wines.

If you would like to join us, we meet every last Thursday in the month at 8:00 in the Village Hall, or for more information please feel free to contact me.

HUNDON VILLAGE HALL – IDEAS AND VOLUNTEERS WANTED

The Village Hall Trustees have been considering a number of additional social activities at the hall for the residents of Hundon and surrounding villages. Look out for adverts in the near future.

One new idea is to run perhaps a monthly evening event that can involve a wider range of the generations and even whole family groups.

One proposal is for a potential 'Games Evening'. This might include both computer simulator group competitions and games on the big screen, board gaming on the tables, and possibly table tennis and darts. The bar, soft drinks and snacks can be available as well.

If the format is successful the board games in particular could be suited to all generations – youngsters, teenagers, adults, parents and grandparents. There are a growing number of 'Gaming Cafes' in Bury St Edmunds and other towns which are proving increasingly popular for a night out - either with groups of friends or among families – so the model does seem to work very well.

We would like to trial this and key to making it work will be some volunteer parents (or any 'gamers' out there) to help plan and run the event. If you or family members would like to be involved, please get them to ring or email me to express an interest and we'll organise a meet to plan ahead.

Hundon Allotment Field

Interested in taking up an allotment and joining our social community?

You could create a few raised beds or planters to grow your own food or flowers or a grass area with some seating from which you can relax and enjoy the view; and watch the owls and bats flying around in the evening – whilst enjoying a drink or two with friends and neighbours.

There is also an opportunity to take on a raised bed or two on the community allotment if this suits you better.

RECTORS RAMBLINGS – JUNE 2023
(TRYING TO UNDERSTAND THE MYSTERY)

Dear Friends,

As we approach the mid-point of the year and the celebration of Trinity Sunday, it's a good time to reflect on the mystery of the Holy Trinity. It is a long held tradition that the Incumbent of a parish would always ask the newly ordained Curate to write or speak about the Trinity (it is a good test to see what they had learned at Theological College, and after all its what they were made to do when they were a lowly Curate many years ago) – but sadly for me, our new Curate – Dr Karen Smith, doesn't join us until next month, so it sadly lands back in my lap!

For Christians, the doctrine of the Holy Trinity is essential to our understanding of God and our faith. But what exactly is the Holy Trinity, and how do we make sense of it? Well at its core, the Holy Trinity is the belief that there is one God in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This belief is grounded in the teachings of Jesus himself, who spoke of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit as distinct but united in one divine being.

To understand the Holy Trinity, we must first recognise that God is a mystery beyond our full comprehension. Theologians have tried for millennia to explain the Trinity in various ways, but ultimately, it remains a mystery that we can only approach with awe and humility. One way to begin to grasp the Trinity is to reflect on the roles of the three persons of God. The Father is the creator and sustainer of all things, the Son is the redeemer who became human to save us, and the Holy Spirit is the source of life and power that animates the Church and guides us on our journey of faith.

Yet, these roles do not define the persons of the Trinity. The Father is not just a creator, the Son is not just a redeemer, and the Holy Spirit is not just a guide. Each person of the Trinity is fully God and has an equal share in the divine nature.

So why is the doctrine of the Holy Trinity so important? For one, it affirms that God is love, and love requires a relationship. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are in an eternal and loving relationship with one another, and we are invited to share in that relationship through our faith in Jesus Christ.

Furthermore, the Holy Trinity teaches us that God is both transcendent and immanent. God is beyond us and yet present to us in a way that is personal and intimate. We can approach God as the one who created us, as the one who saves us, and as the one who empowers us to live a life of faith.

In the end, the Holy Trinity invites us to deepen our relationship with God and with one another. As we reflect on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, let us be reminded of the unity and diversity of God's creation and the call to love and serve one another as we journey together towards our shared hope and destiny.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all.

Thursday 18 May - 7.30 pm Michael Brown presented Lancelot (Capability) Brown, he was an English gardener and landscape architect, who remains the most famous figure in the history of the English landscape garden style. Michael took us through the history of garden design when estate gardens were manned by countless gardeners. From flat knot and parterre gardens bordered with box hedging, not troubled with box blight as today's gardens are, to landscaped estates. He would study the views making lakes that appeared to be rivers, the diggings out turned into rolling hillsides. Bridges and buildings would be seen to entice the visitor to venture on to see more. His work can be seen at Highclere Castle (the real Downton Abbey) and Chatsworth House to name but two.
